

Latin American Ministerial Meeting on Stroke

Simultaneous translation to Portuguese, Spanish, English

Participation at the Ministerial Meeting is only through INVITATION.

In case of interest, send a request to contato@redebrasilavc.org.br

August 2, 2018

08:15 - 08:45 am | Opening Ceremony

08:15 am Welcome: WSO, AHA/ASA, SIECV

08:35 am Testimony of the patient

08:45 - 12:00 am | Panel of Experts

08:45 am A patient's story: what could have done different? – João José Carvalho, Brazilian Stroke Society

09:00 am The burden of stroke: what could be done to reduce it in the most cost-effective and practicable way – Valery Feign, National Institute for Stroke and Applied Neurosciences, School of Public Health and Psychosocial Studies, Auckland University of Technology, New Zealand

09:15 am 90% of strokes can be prevented: hypertension, dyslipidemia, diabetes and changes in the lifestyle – Salvador Cruz, American Heart Association/American Stroke Association, USA

09:30 am Stroke can be prevented: Atrial Fibrillation – Claudio Sacks, President of SIECV, Chile

09:45 am Stroke Units: why they are important and how to implement them? – The WSO Roadmap for stroke services – Patrice Lindsay, Heart and Stroke Foundation, Canada

10:00 am State of the art in acute stroke care: pre-hospital, intra-hospital care and IV thrombolysis – Werner Hacke, President of World Stroke Organization, Germany

10:30 am | Coffee break

10:45 am State of the art in acute stroke care: Endovascular Treatment – Raul Nogueira, President Society of Vascular and Interventional Neurology, USA

11:00 am Education in Stroke: World Stroke Academy and the ABC of Stroke – Michael Brainin, President elected World Stroke Organization, Austria

11:15 am The National Stroke Program in Chile - Pablo Lavados, Clinica Alemana, Chile

11:30 am The National Program of Stroke in Brazil – Ministry of Health of Brazil

11:45 am Research in Latin America - Octávio Pontes Neto, President of the Brazilian Stroke Society

00:00 - 1:00 pm | Lunch

01:30 - 07:00 pm | Ministerial forum

Chair: Minister of Health of Brazil, Gilberto Occhi

01:30 pm The burden of stroke in Latin America – Kátia de Pinho Campos, Pan American Health Organization

01:45 pm Stroke is preventable and treatable: the facts - Werner Hacke, President of World Stroke Organization, Germany

02:15 pm Implantation of a stroke program from the manager's perspective: from national experience to regional experience - José Fogolin Passos, Bauru Health Secretary, Vice-President of CONASEMS SP

02:30 pm A stroke program tailored for Latin America: What is feasible to implement? - Sheila Martins, President of the Brazilian Stroke Network

02:45 pm The stroke in Latin American countries - Ministries of Argentina, Bolivia, Brazil, Chile, Colombia, Costa Rica, Ecuador, Guatemala, Mexico, Panama, Paraguay, Peru, Uruguay

04:45 pm Groups per country - discussion about the gaps and concrete proposals to solve them

05:30 pm Countries conclusions

06:30 pm | Closing Remarks

06:30 pm Document of Priorities in Stroke Latin America 2015 (Declaration of Santiago) - what has changed since then? – Salvador Cruz, American Stroke Association, USA

06:45 pm Gramado Declaration and closing words

Ministerial Meeting Organizer Committee

Sheila Martins, Brazil

Claudio Sacks, Chile

Diana Vaca MacGhie, United States of America

Werner Hacke, Germany

Octávio Marques Pontes Neto, Brazil

Pablo Lavados, Chile

Paulo Piza Teixeira, Brazil

Valery Feigin, New Zealand